System Soft Technologies Makes Staffing Industry Analysts 2020 List of Largest U.S. Staffing Firms

TAMPA, FL—November 11, 2020—System Soft Technologies (SSTech), a leader in enterprise IT services, solutions and products, today announced the company was recently named to Staffing Industry Analysts' 2020 List of Largest U.S. Staffing Firms. This marks the first time the IT solutions and staffing services provider has received this mark of distinction.

“We are excited to be recognized on this list,” said Sreedhar Veeramachaneni, CEO, System Soft Technologies. “Our staffing teams work hard to recruit the right candidates who have the latest experience with transformative technology, then partner them with the right companies looking for growth and success. With this focus, our teams deliver excellent service to our clients, while gaining positive results and giving them a great return on their investment. This recognition is especially important to us, and achieving this goal was driven by our team’s energetic dedication and enthusiasm.”

Now in its 25th year of publication, the Largest Staffing Firms list is the most comprehensive bottom-up analysis of the staffing industry’s competitive landscape and market share. This year, SSTech is one of 175 elite organizations reaching the pinnacle of success by generating more than $100 million in U.S. staffing revenue in 2019, the criterion for making the 2020 list. Combined, these companies created revenue of more than $96.7 billion, representing an estimated 63.5% of market share.
